Dear Dr. Post,

Thanks for your letter of the 26th. At the moment, there is nothing I can say. It is possible that I'll be able, but I do not now know. It is also possible that I may be in New York this coming week. If I am and have time to phone I will. I think that until I can give a word that I know I can keep, it would be better to wait.

Should things develop that make it possible for me to make a firm date by the seventh, I'll be in touch with you. If not, as soon thereafter as I know I can, I'll let you know.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
